The coming test will reveal our true condition. When we feel hurt and having too much grudge, at that point we must move on, not for the person who hurt us, it is all about ourselves, when you start being angry calm your self and imagine that the other person did not even exist, just wait justice is coming and Allah God will never let the justice go. Personally, I suffered a lot from the bad people, but when I remember that there is something called justice whether now or later I automatically relax.
